STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In the second Assembly I had given notice of my intention to introduce a Bill designed to protect married and unmarried girls below the age of 15. Subsequently the Government introduced a similar Bill affording protection to girls below the ages of 13 and 14 within and outside marital relations. During the course of the discussion on this Bill the Hon'ble the Home Member gave an undertaking in the Assembly to circulate those clauses of my Bill which were not covered by the Government Bill. These clauses provided for a new offence of marital misbehaviour. Before, however, it could be passed, the Government appointed a special committee to report on the necessity of further legislation. That committee has published its report supporting in principle the provisions of my original Bill. This Bill is my old Bill, recast in the light of its recommendations and I trust that it may now be passed into law without further delay.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February, 1931:—

L. A. BILL No. 28 OF 1931.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XXXVIII of 1926.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Bar Councils (Amendment) Act, 19 .

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India, where the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, is in force. XXXVIII of 1926.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, appoint.

Amendment of section 4, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

2. In section 4 of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),— XXXVIII of 1926.

(a) sub-section (3) shall be omitted; and

(b) the proviso to sub-section (4) shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 9, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

3. In section 9 of the said Act,—

(a) to sub-section (3) the following words shall be added at the end, namely:—

"and shall also provide for uniformity of rights, privileges and robes of advocates"; and

(b) sub-section (4) shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 14, Act XXXVIII of 1926.

4. In section 14 of the said Act,—

(a) in clause (a) of sub-section (1), the words and figures "subject to the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 9" shall be omitted; and

(b) sub-section (3) shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The main object of the Indian Bar Councils Act, 1926, was the creation of a united Indian Bar. There are certain provisions in the Act, which stand in the way of creation of a united bar by allowing distinction about rights and privileges among advocates. It is desirable that the Act should be so amended, which will do away with all distinctions among advocates, to facilitate the creation of a united Indian bar.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February, 1931:—

L. A. BILL NO. 29 OF 1931.

A Bill to secure a share for Hindu widows in their husbands' family property.

WHEREAS it is expedient to secure a share for Hindu widows in their husbands' family property; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Widows' Right of Inheritance Act, 19 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, including British Baluchistan and the Sonthal Parganas.

(3) It shall come into force on the day of 19 .

Definition.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, "Widow" includes the widow of a person who at the time of his death professed the Hindu, Jaina or Sikh religion.

Widow's right to share in joint family and other property of her husband.

3. (1) Where the husband of a widow was at the time of his death a member of a joint family, the widow shall be entitled to such share of the joint family property as her husband would have been entitled to, under the Mitakshara law had a partition taken place in his life time, and may sue for partition.

(2) Where the husband of a widow was not at the time of his death a member of a joint Hindu family, the widow shall take all his property absolutely:

Provided that, should a widow adopt a son to her deceased husband, the personal law of adoption applicable to the widow shall take effect but to the extent of a moiety only of the family property.

Widow's share to be exclusive of stridhan.

4. A widow's share under this Act shall be exclusive of her independent personal property or her stridhan.

Widow's claim to maintenance to cease on separation of her share.

5. A widow's claim to maintenance from the funds of a joint family shall cease on the partition and separation of her share as provided in this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Hindu Law of Inheritance, so far as women are concerned, is unsatisfactory and unjust, and the position of Hindu widows under it is deplorable.

A Hindu woman does not get any share in her father's property—share in the sense of property of which she becomes absolute owner—nor does she get any in her husband's. Widow's right of inheritance is very scantily and sparingly recognised by different schools of Hindu Law. Katyayana says "Let the widow succeed to her husband's wealth"—Mitakshara ii, 2 s. 2 (Mayne's Hindu Law, p. 757). Mayne says: "Originally she (the widow) shared in the general incapacity for inheritance which affected all women . . . . neither Manu, Apasthamba, Vashishtha nor Narada recognise her right as heir though they do acknowledge that of the daughter and the mother," p. 759.

After tracing the growth of widows' rights, Mayne says that Mitakshara arrived at the conclusion that "the widow is entitled to inherit to her husband, if he died separated and not re-united and leaving no male issue, and this rule is now adopted universally except where the authority of Jimuta Vahana prevails," p. 762. He adds: "It is therefore equally settled in Bengal that a widow succeeds to her husband's share when he is undivided just as she would to the entire property of one who held as separated." But even in Bengal the widow of a son who predeceases his father undivided inherits nothing.

Then as a rule "a widow's right as heir does not go beyond the reason for it, viz., her claim to a personal maintenance. And this is the reason why, where a woman inherits to a male, his heirs and not hers take at her death." A widow's right is practically a right to maintenance and no more.

In practice a widow in Hindu society is at the mercy of coparceners. Even though her husband may have amassed the entire wealth of the family and she may, during his lifetime, have lived a life of affluence and luxury, as soon as he dies, the entire property goes to the surviving male members of the family and she becomes thenceforth only entitled to maintenance, which, as popularly understood, denotes bare means of living.

This state of affairs may have operated tolerably well in days when India was practically isolated from the rest of the world, and the principles and ideals underlying the joint Hindu family system were properly understood and fully acted upon by members of the family. But with the disappearance of those ideals which the originators of the joint family system had in view, the non-observances of the principles on which this system was originally based, the gradual and slowly continuing disintegration of the joint family system, the progressive loosening of caste bonds, resulting in gradual disappearance of the homogeneity and the harmony of Hindu society and various other causes—all due more or less to the acceptance of new ideas of life and conduct and the influence of foreign culture and contact—the Hindu Law of inheritance has begun to operate against women with a disastrous effect and their lives are becoming difficult and distressful and often miserable; while the condition of widows has become intolerable and in many cases appalling.

The present Bill proposes to give relief to Hindu widows by giving them a share in family property and making them sole owners of their deceased husbands' personal property.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 17th February, 1931:—

L. A. BILL No. 30 OF 1931.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend Chapter XXXVII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to directions in the nature of a Habeas Corpus; It is hereby enacted as follows:— V of 1898.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 19 .

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India.

Amendment of section 491, Act V of 1898.

2. For sub-section (3) of section 491 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:— V of 1898.

"(3) When a British Indian subject is detained by any authority otherwise than under a judicial order of any Court in British India, he shall be produced by such authority on an application made by the person so detained or on his behalf to the High Court or Sessions Court within whose jurisdiction the person was arrested, ordinarily resides or is detained, and, if such Court thinks that there is no just ground for his detention under the law under which he is said to be detained, he shall be forthwith set at liberty:

Provided that the operation of the provisions of this sub-section may be suspended in British India or in any part of it by the Governor General in Council by a notification in the Gazette of India in cases of grave emergency; such suspension shall cease to have any force if the assent of both Chambers of the Indian Legislature is not obtained within two months of the date of notification."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There is no law like the Habeas Corpus Act for securing the liberty of person of His Majesty's British Indian subjects against unlawful or unjustifiable detentions except the meagre provision contained in section 491 of Act V of 1898. In England, in any matter involving the liberty of the subject, the action of the Crown, of its ministers or high officials of the Privy Council or the Executive Government, is subject to the supervision and control of the Judges on Habeas Corpus. It is a remedy available to the meanest subject against the most powerful, and the writ is applicable as a remedy in all cases of wrongful deprivation of personal liberty. It is but just and proper that there should be some analogous provision for the protection of the liberty of persons of His Majesty's British Indian subjects in India. The necessity for amending the law has been occasioned by the arbitrary exercise of its powers of detention under various laws by Executive authorities in recent times. The amendment provides for a judicial pronouncement on the justifiability or otherwise of executive acts. It is said that papers of all cases of such detention are placed before two Sessions Judges, and the proposed amendment only seeks to give a satutory sanction to the practice said to be in vogue. Provision has also been made in the proposed Bill for suspension of the whole or a portion of the section in cases of grave emergency by the Governor General in Council in or any part of British India, and excludes all cases where there has been any judicial order for detention.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to continue certain provisions of the Indian Finance Act, 1930, which would otherwise cease to have effect from the 1st April, 1930, and to provide the additional resources referred to in my speech introducing the budget for 1931-32 by varying the existing scale of customs duties, excise duties, income-tax and super-tax.

2. Clauses 2, 5 and 9 provide for the continuance, for a further period of one year, of the existing provisions regarding salt duty, Inland postage rates and the credit to revenue of interest on securities forming part of the Paper Currency Reserve.

3. Clauses 3 and 4 seek to vary the customs duties on the lines indicated in paragraphs 61 to 67 of my budget speech. The exact variations in the tariff have been detailed in Schedules I and II.

4. Clauses 6, 8 and 10 respectively provide for increases in the excise duties on motor spirit, kerosene and silver, corresponding to the increase in the customs duties on the same articles.

5. Clause 7 provides for the continuance, for another year, of the levy of income-tax and super-tax, with the alterations as to rates mentioned in paragraphs 69 and 70 of my budget speech.

6. A comparison between the existing and the proposed rates and the estimated financial effect of the alterations in each case, will be found in the Financial Secretary's Explanatory Memorandum.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 27th January, 1931:—

L. A. BILL No. 20 OF 1931.

A Bill further to amend the Special Marriage Act, 1872.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Special Marriage Act, 1872; It is hereby enacted as follows:— III of 1872.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Special Marriage (Amendment) Act, 193 .

Amendment of preamble to Act III of 1872. 2. In the preamble to the Special Marriage Act, 1872 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),— III of 1872.

(i) after the words "a form of" the word "civil" shall be inserted;

(ii) after the words "for persons" the words "domiciled in British India" shall be inserted; and

(iii) the words "who do not profess the Christian, Jewish, Hindu, Muhammadan, Parsi, Buddhist, Sikh or Jaina religion" shall be omitted.

Amendment of section 2, Act III of 1872. 3. In section 2 of the said Act,—

(i) the words "neither of whom professes the Christian or the Jewish, or the Hindu or the Muhammadan, or the Parsi or the Buddhist, or the Sikh or the Jaina religion" shall be omitted; and (ii) after the words "between persons" the words "domiciled in British India" shall be inserted.

Amendment of clause 2, Second Schedule to Act III of 1872. 4. In the Second Schedule to the said Act, for clause 2 in the Declarations to be made by the bridegroom and the bride, respectively, the following shall be substituted, namely:—"I am domiciled in Birtish India."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The laws of all civilised countries provide for the contract of civil marriage by persons who may so desire. The disability to contract such marriages in India is merely territorial and there is no reason why a similar law should not be enacted for this country. The enactment, if passed, would be merely optional and leaves intact the existing personal laws which control the performance of marriages.

The reasons which have induced me to draft this Bill are as follows:—

Sir Henry Maine as Law Member of the Governor General's Council had introduced a Civil Marriage Bill; but, as the Government were then immediately concerned with an enactment to prescribe a civil form of marriage applicable only to Brahmos by whom they were moved for the enactment of a secular law to enable them to contract marriages, its provisions were so limited in the Bill which became Act III of 1872.

In 1909, the late Mr. Bhupendra Nath Basu and later on I had also introduced a similar Bill, but its provisions were eventually transformed into those of Act XXX of 1923.

The Baroda State have recently introduced a Civil Marriage Bill; while the Laws of other Indian States are understood to provide for the performance of such marriages. The advantages of the measure, if enacted, are obvious. The Bill would enable persons subject to polygamous marriage laws to contract monogamous marriages and remove the inequality in the matter of divorce. It would elevate the status of women. These benefits have already been assured to the Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs and Jains by Act XXX of 1923, and there is no reason why the benefit that that Act confers upon the communities named should not be extended to other communities who might as regards succession be eqaully brought under the law enacted in the Indian Succession Act. A provision to this effect has not been inserted in the Bill, but it can be added at a later stage if public opinion favours it. The absence of a civil marriage law lends itself to perjury and artificial conversions which it is the policy of the State to prevent. It was so observed by Sir Henry Maine who advocated the establishment of a non-sectarian marriage law in order to prevent the abuse resulting from such conversions (Proceedings Imperial Council, dated 27th November, 1868, pp. 498, 499).

To sum up then the advantages of such marriages are as follows:—

1. Such marriages are recognised and provided for by the laws of all civilised countries, and it is possible to contract such marriages outside the territoiial limits of India. The disability is, therefore, purely territorial, and patriotic Indians are naturally anxious to remove all such disabilities from their way.

2. The Bill is monogamous in its policy and would result in introducing monogamy where polygamous marriages alone are at present possible.

3. It would prevent artificial conversions resulting from the exigency of marriages.

4. It would give a wider field for selection and thus ensure a happier domestic life.

5. It would introduce a greater sincerity in marriages by dispensing with the subscription of a declaration which many desiring to marry under the existing Act have to subscribe to not without considerable mental reserve.

6 It would tend to the unification of the Indian races without at the same time interfering with their personal religion.

7. It would give the wife a more assured position and entitle her to exercise her right of divorce which may not be possible if married under her personal law.

8. And being merely optional it trenches upon no one's rights, but merely prescribes a form to those who, while desiring to escape from the thraldom of their religious ritual, do not wish to renounce it.

It is believed that, with the growing strength of the national sentiment, such a Bill has become a public desideratum, and it has therefore been decided to re-introduce it in the Central Legislature.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 27th January, 1931:—

L. A. BILL NO. 22 OF 1931.

A Bill to remove certain doubts regarding the dissolution of marriages of persons professing the Hindu religion.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove certain doubts regarding the dissolution of marriages of persons professing the Hindu religion in certain cases; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, application and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Hindu Marriages Dissolution Act, 193 .

(2) It applies to all Hindus, and extends to the whole of British India.

Ground for dissolution of marriage.

2. Notwithstanding any law or custom to the contrary, a Hindu wife shall be entitled to obtain a declaration of the invalidity of her marriage or its dissolution for any of the following reasons, namely:—

(a) impotency of the husband;

(b) his imbecility;

(c) the fact that he was suffering from sanious or ulcerous leprosy.

Saving of other rights.

3. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to restrict the rights of dissolution of marriages otherwise existing.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Hindu law the main object of marriage is the procreation of a male off-spring. It was so necessary that that result was obtained by the practice of Niyog, which provided the wife with a companion when the husband himself was imbecile or impotent. As that practice has fallen into desuetude, it is necessary that wives married to such persons should obtain relief; since if they can no longer practise Niyog they should be free to adopt the only honourable course open to them of securing their release from the bondage of such marriages. This is all the more necessary, since under Hindu law both the husband suffering from any of these disabilities and his wife are excluded from all rights in property. It is, therefore, hoped that this measure will give the Hindu wife some relief to which she is so clearly entitled. The Bill is not intended to introduce any innovation in the Hindu law of marriages. If passed, it will have the effect of merely restoring the old law laid down by Narad and Vashisth whose Smritis are of the most revered authorities on Hindu law:

"Narad: XII—8. The man must undergo an examination with regard to his virility; when the fact of his virility has been placed beyond doubt, he shall obtain the maiden (but not otherwise).

Ib. 16. For the wife of one who spills his semen, or whose semen is devoid of strength, though they may have discharged their marital duties, another husband must be procured after she has waited for half a year.

Ib. 19. Women have been created for the sake of propagation, the wife being the field, and the husband the giver of the seed. The field must be given to him who has seed. He who has no seed is unworthy to possess the field.

Ib. 24. When a bridegroom goes abroad after having espoused a maiden, let the maiden wait till her menses have passed three times, and then choose another bridegroom.

Ib. 37. Madness, loss of caste, impotency, misery, to have forsaken his relatives (affliction with a chronic or hateful disease, and deformity): these are the faults of a suitor.

Ib. 97. When her husband is lost or dead, when he has become a religious ascetic, when he is impotent, and when he has been expelled from caste: these are the five cases of legal necessity, in which a woman may be justified in taking another husband."

(Narad xii—8, 16, 19, 24, 37, 97, 9-S. B. E., page 166 et seq.)

Vashisth—20. And she is called remarried who leaving an impotent, outcast or mad husband takes another lord. (Vashisth XVII—20; 14-S. B. E.-867.)

J. C. ROY, for Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 26th March 1931.

Forecast of the Rabi Crops of Bengal for 1930-31.

(NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1928-29, the area under summer rice in Bengal has represented some 0·5 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—The rainfall in October, though below the average, was adequate for the preparatory tillage and sowings of the crops which commenced generally in the normal time. Dry weather during the first part of November was helpful to germination and growth, but heavy rain during the latter part of the month caused a little damage in some districts. In December the weather was dry and favourable for the growth and development, but the drought being prolonged up till the end of January, was somewhat injurious to the early sown crops. On the whole the season has been a fairly favourable one for the crops this year.

Acreage.—The normal area under the different spring crops dealt with in this forecast is estimated at 3,394,900 acres. The area actually sown this year is reported to be 2,865,600 acres as against 2,844,300 acres last year. Of this, the area under summer (boro) rice is returned at 379,600 acres as against 399,800 acres last year, and that under tobacco is 283,900 acres as against 295,400 acres last year.

Outturn.—According to District Officers' estimates, the average outturn of the different rabi crops for the Province as a whole works out to 82 per cent. of the normal as against 80 per cent. last year, the outturns for the more important rabi districts being as follows:—

Mymensingh 75, Dacca 77, Rangpur 100, Faridpur 99, Murshidabad 84, Pabna 83, Noakhali 64, Malda 72, Jalpaiguri 90, Rajshahi 75, Khulna 83, Bakarganj 69, Nadia 74, Tippera 69, Jessore 74, Burdwan 92, and Midnapore 83.

Summer Rice and Tobacco Crops.—The outturn of summer rice, according to district estimates, is 80 per cent. of the normal as against 78 per cent. last year. The gross yield of the crop for the province, on a basis of the normal yield of 14 maunds of clean grain per acre, is estimated at 156,200 tons this year as against 160,400 tons last year.

The outturn of tobacco crop is estimated at 94 per cent. of the normal as against 93 per cent. last year. Taking 12¼ maunds as the normal yield of the crop per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province this year is estimated at 120,100 tons as against 123,600 tons last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

New Delhi, the 26th March 1931.

No. 202-T. (26).—Under the Bamboo Paper Industry (Protection) Act, 1925, protective duties were imposed on certain kinds of paper in order to develop the manufacture in India of paper from bamboo. These duties will expire on the 31st March, 1932, and before that date it is necessary that an enquiry should be held in order to ascertain how far the Act has achieved its purpose and whether the continuance of protective measures beyond that date is desirable. In making its recommendations the Tariff Board will take all relevant considerations into account including that stated in part (b) of the Resolution adopted by the Legislative Assembly on the 16th February 1923.

2. Firms or persons interested in the paper-making industry or in industries dependent on the use of paper who desire that their views should be considered by the Tariff Board should address their representations to the Secretary to the Board.

CALCUTTA, THE 10TH APRIL 1931.

RESOLUTION—No. 3571A.

The Governor in Council has learnt with feelings of profound regret of the death at the hands of an assassin on the 8th April of Mr. James Peddie, C.I.E., I.C.S., District Magistrate of Midnapore. Mr. Peddie was a fine type of the post-war Indian civilian, and it is the irony of fate that he survived four years of warfare on the western front only to be struck down from behind by a murderer's bullet. He joined the Army soon after the outbreak of the War and before its conclusion was commanding a battalion of the Northumberland Fusiliers. On relinquishing his commission in 1919 he applied for the Indian Civil Service and joined at Dacca in December 1919. After a year as Subdivisional Officer at Munshiganj from April 1921 and a short period in Secretariat appointments, he was posted to Malda as Magistrate in the 6th year of his service, and there by the energy and devotion which for four years he displayed in every line of activity which affected the welfare of the people, he won for himself the confidence of all classes and made a name which will long endure. After a year's well deserved leave he returned to duty in the important charge of Midnapore in February 1930. Here he very soon had to face a situation where the effects of the civil disobedience campaign had resulted in widespread disorder, but his indomitable energy and courage, and his great administrative abilities combined with a capacity for obtaining loyal service from his subordinates enabled him to bring a dangerous situation under control. His services were rewarded by the bestowal of the Companionship of the Order of the Indian Empire in the New Year's Honours of 1931. Mr. Peddie was looking forward characteristically to the commencement of a period of constructive work in his district when he fell a victim of another of the senseless crimes which so frequently of late have marred the history of Bengal.

In him the province has lost an officer of outstanding personality who, in the ordinary course, had before him many years of valuable work, and no servant of Government had the welfare of the people more at heart. Government have lost an officer of proved ability, fearless in the execution of his duty, beloved and respected by all who knew him, and they tender their sincere sympathy to those relatives and friends of his who mourn his untimely loss.

IRRIGATION DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 13-I.—7th April 1931.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6 and 11 of the Canals Act, 1864 (Bengal Act V of 1864), the Governor in Council is pleased to make and fix, with effect from the 15th May 1931, the following rules and schedule of rates of tolls for the Rampur Bil Khal joining the Gazipur Khal at Gazipur and Chechri on the north and Amua Done at Amua on the south in the district of Bakarganj:—

Rules and schedules of rates of tolls.

1. Every vessel on entering the channel and before passing the gate at either end or even when entering the channel from a side khal between the gates shall be liable to measurement for the purpose of ascertaining the tolls payable; in case of any reasonable doubt arising, a vessel may be measured again by any person appointed by the District Board of Bakarganj on this behalf.

2. Vessels for the purpose of the determination of maundage shall be divided into two classes as below:—

Class I.—To include all vessels of the types of country boats, including saltees and hapors (fish cages), house boats, kosh boats, green boats, etc.

Class II.—To include steam boats, motor boats, flats and barges and other square-built vessels.

3. The maundage of every vessel, whether laden or empty, shall, for the purpose of Act V (B. C.) of 1864 and of these rules, be determined by the following measurements:—

CLASS I.

A. The product of one quarter the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water-line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

B. The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches; the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C. The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D. Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

CLASS II.

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers and motor boats the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance of engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way bills or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which tolls will be charged.

4. After the measurement the person in charge of the vessel shall be provided with a slip showing the maundage to be charged, which must be presented at the toll office where he will be provided with a ticket, after payment of toll, which will permit the vessel to pass the gate or proceed through the channel.

5. Every ticket shall have entered on it the name of the sarang, manjee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage, the cargo, the amount of toll charged and the number of days for which the ticket remains current.

6. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll office before a vessel is permitted to proceed.

7. The ticket must be kept on board the vessel and in possession of the person in charge of the vessel and must be produced for inspection when demanded by the person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rules 3 and 12 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section 9 of the Act.

8. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a fee equal to one quarter of the total tollage, subject to a minimum fee of one anna per ticket.

9. All vessels, whether the property of Government, District Board, other local bodies or of private persons, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under these rules or by a resolution passed by the District Board of Bakarganj from time to time.

10. The canal may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to it on seven days' notice of the intention so to close it being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canal may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

11. No rafts exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth shall be permitted to enter the canals.

12. The rates of toll shall be as follows:—

(1) On all vessels empty or laden, per hundred maunds—Twelve annas.

(2) On all vessels empty or laden, for 12½ maunds or less—One anna six pies.

(3) On rafts of bamboos, grass, timber, etc., not exceeding 50 feet in length and 5 feet in breadth—Six annas each raft.

Tolls will be levied at Amua.

13. For boats frequently using the canal, such as boats carrying passengers, grass or perishable articles monthly tickets will be issued at 10 times the ordinary toll.

14. Every vessel which has paid toll shall be allowed to remain in the canal for three days inclusive of the days of entry into and leaving the canal. A vessel remaining in any part of the canal longer than three days shall be charged demurrage equal to one-half of the toll for each day in excess of three days. No vessel shall be permitted to remain in the canal for more than one month. Provided that this rule shall not apply to vessels holding monthly tickets under rule 13 above, which may remain in the canal for more than three days without payment of demurrage but not for more than one month at a time.

15. No vessel carrying exclusively police officers or servants, soldiers and officers of the British Army, post mail runners, officers of the Irrigation Department on duty, officers and servants of the toll office for the canal referred to in these rules while on duty, or the vessels of such other persons as may be exempted by a resolution of the District Board of Bakarganj, shall be liable for toll in the canal.

16. Any matter relating to the mode of collection of tolls and other relevant points, not provided for in these rules, shall be decided by the District Board of Bakarganj at a meeting, and shall be subject to the approval of the local Government.

Three students are also eligible for admission from the Dacca University area and three from the Dacca Intermediate Board. Students from other provinces and from Indian States for whom places have been reserved are also eligible for admission to the college.

Only students who intend to take the M. B. examination of the Calcutta University are admitted to this class.

(2) Military pupils' class.—Only European or Anglo-Indian students are admitted to this class (see separate prospectus for military pupils whose admission is regulated by the Director-General, Indian Medical Service).

2. The minimum preliminary qualification for admission is the First Class Pass certificate of the I. Sc. examination of the Calcutta University with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics or an examination recognised as equivalent to it. This rule may be relaxed in favour of Muhammadan students and such candidates having passed the said examination in the second division may be admitted, provided they are otherwise considered suitable, to make up the number allotted for the Muhammadan students. In assessing the claims of those eligible for admission special weight will be attached to proficiency in English.

3. (a) Female students qualified under rules 1 and 2 will be admitted to the college, provided there is a vacancy in the Swarnamoyee Hostel in which all female students must reside.

(b) Female students studying in the college but belonging to provinces other than Bengal and not domiciled in Bengal will pay rents for accommodation in the Swarnamoyee Hostel.

4. The session commences with the summer term which begins on the 15th June and ends on the day before the commencement of the Durga Puja holidays. The winter term commences on the day after close of the Durga Puja holidays and ends on the 31st March.

Preference for admission will usually be given to candidates who have superior qualifications, but the final selection lies entirely with the Selection Committee appointed by Government.

These students must possess the qualifications mentioned in rule 2 and the nomination must reach the Principal, Medical College, Calcutta, before the 10th June each year, failing which the vacancies will be filled up with local candidates. Vacancies arising by resignation or otherwise in places filled by reservation for the authorities in paragraph (a) cannot be filled again by those authorities during the year.

(b) Three seats shall be reserved annually for nomination by the Surgeon-General, provided the candidates fulfil the necessary educational and physical qualifications. These nominations shall ordinarily be made after the Selection Committee have made their choice under clause (c).

(c) The remaining vacancies shall be filled up by the Selection Committee specially appointed by Government from year to year. This Selection Committee will be the authority to select candidates belonging to Bengal.

Ramna, Dacca, the 8th April 1931.

Third Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1930-31.

NOTE.—On an average of five years ending 1928-29, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent. of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on has, in the five years ending 1928-29, averaged (a) 38·1 and (b) 11·1 per cent., respectively.

Character of the season.—As indicated in the preceding forecasts, the weather was generally favourable at sowing time and for sometime during the period of growth, but drought in February and untimely rain later on during the harvest time have adversely affected the crop in some West and North Bengal districts. On the whole the season has been a fairly favourable one for the crop this year.

Acreage.—According to District Officers' estimates the total area sown amounts to 142·900 acres this year as against 126·200 acres, both in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year, or an increase of about 13 per cent. over last year.

Outturn.—The average outturn for the province, as worked out from district estimates, is 78 per cent. of the normal as against 84 and 81 per cent. in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Taking the normal yield to be 8¾ maunds per acre, the gross yield of the crop for the province is estimated at 35,800 tons this year as against 34,100 and 32,900 tons in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits ; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominee predecease them after five years of admission. The second quinquennial valuation of the Fund has been completed by the Actuary to the Government of India, and his report discloses very favourable results. For forms of application and rules of the Fund apply to the Accountant-General, Bengal, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

CALCUTTA, the 11th April 1931.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 16th April 1931.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for March 1931.

I. Character of the season.—During the month under review, the rainfall was above the normal in the districts of Murshidabad, Birbhum, Rajshahi, Pabna and Bakarganj and in the State of Cooch Bihar while in the rest of the Presidency it was below the average. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—Preparatory tillage for jute and other autumn crops continued in East and North Bengal districts but the operations could not progress favourably for want of adequate rain.

III. State of standing crops.—The condition of standing crops is reported as generally fair.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The outturns of summer rice and tobacco are expected to be 80 and 94 per cent. of the normal respectively this year. The prospects of summer til, sugarcane and other standing crops are reported to be satisfactory, on the whole.

V. Damage to standing crops.—Damage by rain and hail during the first two weeks of the month was reported form Nadia, Birbhum, Hooghly and Rangpur.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of live-stock was fair, on the whole. Stray cases of cattle-disease, however, were reported from eleven districts of the Presidency and from the Cooch Bihar and Tripura States.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—The supply of fodder was reported as sufficient throughout the Presidency.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month, the retail prices of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in fourteen districts, fell in three and remained stationary in the rest of the Presidency. The prices varied from 8$\frac{7}{16}$ seers per rupee in Tippera to 14 seers per rupee in Bankura.

IX. Condition of agricultural population.—The condition of the agricultural population is not satisfactory owing to fall in the prices of jute and other staples. Distress continues to prevail in parts of Bogra and Pabna. Test relief works continued in the latter district and were opened in the former since the last week of the month where demand for agricultural loans also exists and gratuitous relief was given.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 96B of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the majority of votes at a meeting of the Council of India held this 30th day of December 1930 hereby makes the following amendments to the Passage (Subordinate) Rules, 1925, namely:—

For Rule 1 of the said Rules, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"1. (1) These rules may be called the 'Passage (Subordinate) Rules, 1925.' They supersede the rules previously in force regarding the grant of passages to personnel engaged in the United Kingdom for service in India who are provided with second class passages on appointment.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3) of this rule they apply—

(a) to any person of non-Asiatic domicile who was or is hereafter engaged outside India on contract for a period of not less than 3 years and to whom a 2nd class passage to India was or may be granted by Government for the purpose of joining his appointment during that contract and throughout his Government service thereafter;

(b) to any person of non-Asiatic domicile who was or is hereafter engaged outside India on contract for a period of less than 3 years to such extent as may be decided by the appointing Government to be appropriate provided that they shall apply without qualification to any such person who remains in Government service after completing 3 years' service;

(c) to any person of non-Asiatic domicile engaged in India on contract to whom they may be declared by the appointing Government to apply subject to such modification as may be decided by that Government to be appropriate.

(3) If a person to whom these rules apply becomes entitled to passage benefits under the Superior Civil Services Rules, or accepts in their stead passage benefits under any other analogous rules, he shall thereupon cease to be a person to whom these rules apply.

(4) Female employees shall not be entitled to the benefits admissible to the families of male employees."

In Rule 9 of the said Rules, the words "notwithstanding that his service may be continued beyond the term of his original agreement" shall be deleted.

And the said Rules shall have effect, and may be deemed always to have had effect, as though they had been enacted as so amended.

RESOLUTION.

New Delhi, the 6th April 1931.

No. 26-F.E. of 25. — In Notification No. 26-F.-E. of 25, dated the 25th March 1931, the Governor General in Council issued a set of Rules called the Contributory Provident Fund Rules (India) which are intended to apply to all non-pensionable Government servants under the control of the Governor General in Council, who have been, or may be, admitted to the benefits of a special or contributory provident fund, except the State Railway Provident Fund.

2. The Rules published with the Notification referred to above, supersede, except to the extent indicated in paragraph 3 below, the "Instructions regulating Special Provident Funds" issued with the Government of India, Finance Department, Circular letter No. 1093-F.E., dated the 28th August 1918. The Rules preserve the rights and privileges of subscribers conferred by the "Instructions" of 1918 with the following modifications:—

(i) Subscription during leave, if made, will be at the full rate for the year; and the option of subscribing at a reduced rate which means complications in accounting is withdrawn.

(ii) Subscribers have now to make a nomination showing how their deposits are to be disposed of in the event of their death in service, and married subscribers are required to nominate a member or members of their family. This confers the advantage of prompt payments, free of probate duties and other legal expenses on the recipients.

(iii) Subscribers are permitted to withdraw their entire deposits only when they actually retire, but may withdraw their subscriptions plus interest thereon when they proceed on leave preparatory to retirement.

(iv) Subscriptions may now range between 6¼ per cent. and 15⅝ per cent. of pay instead of being limited to 8⅓ per cent. of pay.

(v) Subscriptions plus interest thereon, may be diverted to the payment of insurance premiums, or for the purchase of single payment life policies.

3. Government servants now serving on contracts which do not contain a specific provision that their provident funds would be governed by these Rules when made cannot be compelled to join this Fund while their present contracts remain in force; but it will be observed from paragraph 2 above that the balance of advantage lies in their doing so. The proviso to Rule 4 of the Rules deals with this class, and indicates how Government servants on contract who desire to bring themselves within the scope of the Rules, may do so. In such cases, a subsidiary agreement has to be executed in the form appended to this Resolution.

ORDERED that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India.

Form of Supplementary Agreement

Articles of Agreement made the between of of the first part and the Secretary of State for India in Council of the second part.

WHEREAS this agreement is supplemental to the Articles of Agreement (hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Agreement") made the between the said parties;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to modify the terms of the Principal Agreement in manner hereinafter appearing;

20. In sub-section (1) of section 64 of the said Act, after the words "at any place", the words "in British India" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Indian Income-tax Act of 1922 (Act XI of 1922), while liability to tax is in certain circumstances affected by the residence of the person concerned, it depends mainly on the "origin" of the income (that is to say, the place where it accrued or arose) and the place where it is received.

2. With unimportant exceptions, income received outside British India by or on behalf of a resident in British India is not liable to Indian income-tax unless—

(a) it is derived from business,

(b) it is remitted to British India, and

(c) it is remitted within 3 years of the end of the year in which it is received [vide section 4(2)].

3. The effect of this feature of the law must be to offer an inducement for the investment of money abroad, which might otherwise be invested in India, and thus not only to reduce the Indian revenue from income-tax, but also to affect adversely the supply of capital for investment in India.

4. It is therefore considered desirable to amend the law, following the lines of the law in force in the United Kingdom, so as to make residence the main basis of liability while still retaining origin and remittance into British India as bases of liability in certain circumstances.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2 (a).—These amendments are designed to prevent a person temporarily resident in British India from avoiding or reducing liability to tax by the expedient of selecting as his "previous year" a period that will produce such an effect; and also to prevent the power vested in the Central Board of Revenue of determining an assessee's previous year from operating unfairly in the case of a temporary resident. It is proposed that such persons should always be assessed on the basis of their total income in a financial year.

Clause 2 (b).—This alteration is consequential on the general scheme of the Bill as explained below.

Clauses 3 and 4.—The two leading charging sections 3 and 4 have been redrafted. Section 3 as amended declares what persons are liable to tax, and also declares that they shall pay tax on their total income of the previous year.

New section 4 (1) (a) in effect repeats existing sub-section (1) of section 4 omitting the reference to receipt.

Clauses (b) and (c) of amended section 4 (1) follow the main lines of the English law.

Thus, new section 4 gives, in the first place, a comprehensive outline of an assessee's total income of any given year, and then, in sub-section (2), gives a list of the classes of income which shall be excluded from the computation of the total income. Sums received by a member of a Hindu undivided family have been transferred here from section 14 (1). New sub-section (3) then proceeds to "charge" all income, profits and gains comprised in the "total income", less sums exempted, with tax at the rate applicable to the whole income.

Clause 5.—Proposed sections 4A and 4B define 'residence in British India' and 'domicile' for the purposes of the Act. As regards 'residence', section 4A broadly follows the English law as interpreted by judicial decisions but avoiding complicated details. Section 4B defines the domicile of a Hindu undivided family and of an association of individuals other than a Hindu undivided family, including a company and a firm.

Clauses 6, 7, 8, 13, 14 and 17.—The first two heads of income in section 6 of the Act are "Salaries" and "Interest on securities", and these heads are explained in sections 7 and 8. Section 18 provides a special machinery for the collection of tax under these two heads, namely, collection in advance by deduction at source. The machinery, obviously, can only be enforced where the deducting agency is within British Indian jurisdiction, and can have no application to taxable salaries and interest paid abroad. Hence the series of amendments in these clauses restricting the two heads to "Salaries paid in British India" and to "Interest on Securities paid in British India".—which is in effect their present scope. Salaries and interest on securities paid abroad, which will now become taxable, will be included in the sixth head—"Other Sources".

Clause 9.—With the introduction of the "residence" basis in section 4, sub-section (3) of section 11 becomes superfluous.

Clauses 10, 18 and 20 contain consequential drafting amendments.

Clause 11 should be read with the amendment proposed in clause 4 (b) (ii). Section 4 (3) as it now stands speaks of classes of income to which the Act does not apply. In relation to the shares of the family income dealt out to members of a Hindu undivided family, this phrasing was not quite applicable and these shares were not included in the completely exempted classes of income given in section 4 (3). Nevertheless, these shares are not taxable, and are not even included in the total income of the recipient for the purposes of assessment of his separate income. These propositions are contained in sections 14 and 16 of the Act, as they now stand. This method of securing complete exemption to these shares does not fit into the amended forms proposed in the sections concerned, and it has been found expedient to include these shares in the totally exempted classes of section 4 (3) and to delete section 14 (1). These changes, therefore, are of a merely drafting nature.

Clause 12.—Section 16 has been recast so as to give a detailed account of the process of computing total income.

Clause 15.—New section 24 (a) enables an Income-tax Officer to assess without waiting for the termination of the financial year the income of a person temporarily resident in India.

Clause 19 gives to the Central Board of Revenue power to prescribe rates of exchange for taxable income arising anywhere abroad and is an extension of the principle already contained in section 18 (2A).
